Easily Track Classroom Attendance!™

Need to track classroom attendance? We are glad you found AccuClass, the easy way to track class attendance. Experience it yourself by applying for a complimentary one-semester account below.

Be sure to check out more information on our website at www.engineerica.com/accuclass

Use the attendance tracking method of your choice:

1. Use a computer or a laptop (PC or Mac) in the classroom to call the roll. Manually mark absent and late students.
2. For a faster way, use the incredibly affordable and amazingly cool RFID Technology. Simply have the students pass their RFID key fob over the RFID reader to record their attendance. Click here for more information on this option.
3. Use a computer in the classroom as a sign-in station and have students sign in by swiping their student ID card in a magnetic strip reader or use a barcode reader. Students can also type their ID number on the keyboard. Click here for information on ID Readers.
4. Use one or more time clocks mounted on the wall near the classroom entrance to capture the attendance. Click here for information on the time clocks.
5. Use an Apple device (iPad, iPad mini, iPod touch, or iPhone) to call the roll. Click here for more info.
6. Use an Apple device (iPad, iPad mini, iPod touch, or iPhone) and sign the students in by reading a QR barcode or swiping an ID card with a magnetic strip. Click here for more info.

Enjoy the Advantages of a cloud-based system:

AccuClass is web-based software hosted in the Amazon cloud. This offers you many advantages:

1. Easy: There is no need for installation CDs, database installation, web server configuration, storage space allocation, etc. All you need to use AccuClass is a web browser!
2. Economical: You do not need to buy expensive web servers, Windows server licenses, SQL Server licenses, and other software needed to run the system.
3. Quick: Get your account almost instantly. Be up and running in a short time.
4. Smart: You do not need to use up your IT department's time for installation, maintenance, or support of AccuClass.
5. Accessible: You can log in from anywhere, anytime.
