Development API

Developers, please check our Developer Site on Google Code. There are helpful documents on the development of your own plug-ins, Single Sign-On (SSO) for Accudemia, Custom Login Page code, and more!

If you have developed an extension/plug-in for either Accudemia or ADX (the Accudemia import utility), we will be glad to see it!

You can contribute back to the community by sending all your plug-ins to support@accudemia.com, we will review it and post your code so others can take advantage of it in our wiki!

Self-Hosting

If you plan to host Accudemia by your own, please review: Self-Hosting Server Requirements
